

the do not call list has been extremely helpful to my family. I have noticed that my telephone calls have been less interruptive and less disruptive to our family time together. It really has made a difference. I hope other families will have the opportunity to this advantage my family has been able to benefit from daily.